

[From the New York Express.]
POLITICS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—Politics we see are running high in the District of Columbia, and it is not strange that it should be so, for if ever a people were badly treated it is the People of that District, who, seeing most of the Government under which they live, and from which alone they can look for protection, are suffering most from neglect and bad treatment. Deprived of the rights of franchise, the People are nevertheless active politicians, and four-fifths of them are good Whigs. Recently a Clay Club House has been dedicated in Washington, and there is a flourishing Clay Club also at Alexandria. Able speeches were made at each of these, by distinguished Whigs. A friend has forwarded us one from Hon. Willis Green, of Kentucky, a speech replete with sound argument and clear illustration, in defence of Whig principles and Whig candidates. We have marked several passages for the Express in reference to Texas and the Tariff, both of which questions are thoroughly understood and well handled by the honorable member. The following anecdote told to the Alexandrians, happily illustrates the Loco-foco robbery of Mr. Tyler's Texas thunder: "Their conduct towards Mr. Tyler, ungrateful and fraudulent as it is, reminds me of a circumstance that happened in your sister city, Washington, some years ago, and which, it strikes me, will serve to illustrate the position of the parties. A gentleman walking along the avenue, on his way to the Capitol, was attracted by the cries of a little girl, whose companion, an older and stouter girl, was beating her with great energy and cruelty. He hastened immediately to the scene of action, and, disengaging the combatants, inquired of the assailant, in an angry manner, why she thus whipped the child, for which, he said, she ought to be heartily ashamed. "Why," said she, the tears starting to her eyes, and running down her cheeks, "she has stolen my begging story, and I shan't be able to get any more money." Even so it is with Mr. Tyler and his Loco-foco allies. The sagacious Loco-focos, finding that their old stories are worn out by long usage, and will not bear telling any longer, have stolen his begging story. Yes, my friends, I must do the President the justice to say, that he has been robbed of his entire capital and stock in trade, and that the unscrupulous Loco-foco leaders are trying to reap profit at his expense from their ill-gotten booty."

Gen. HARDIN reached his place of residence, at Jacksonville, a few days since, in good health and spirits. Since the adjournment of Congress, he has visited, by urgent solicitation, several of the Eastern States, and addressed thousands upon thousands of enthusiastic Whigs. Every where he was received with the most marked demonstrations of respect; and those who listened to his bold, manly, and independent style of speaking, were gratified in the extreme. No member of the present Congress has risen as rapidly in public estimation as Gen. Hardin; and the reputation he has acquired for talent and industry, and devotion to the interests of his State, cannot be otherwise than a source of the greatest pride and gratification to his constituents, (who embody the Whigs, at least, of the State,) as well as to himself.—Alton (Illinois) Telegraph.

MORE HELP.—The "Ohio Whig Auger, and Loco-foco Excavator," a neat demy sheet, by T. W. H. Mosely, editor, (known as the Pump borer,) has been laid on our table. It will be published until after the election of Henry Clay, at 35 cents a copy, five copies $1.62, ten copies $3.00, always in advance. We have not space for an extended notice, but we shall be mistaken if this Excavator does not let day light shine thro' the carcass of Loco-focoism before the election. Then comes our old friend Sage, formerly of the Straightout Harrisonian of 1840. Those who remember the vivid scenes of that campaign cannot have forgotten him or his Straightout. He now issues proposals for a campaign paper, to be called—"The Whig Battering Ram, or Straightout Revived." Sage has been rusticating in the Rocky Mountains, and he comes down upon us now with the elasticity of a Buffalo hunter, and seems as intent upon his game. He proposes to issue the first number on the 7th August, price 50 cents.—Ohio State Journal.

RUSSELLVILLE CONVENTION.—The Whigs of the Green River counties, in Kentucky, convened at Russellville last Friday, to the number of twelve or fifteen thousand, and were addressed by Hon. JOHN J. CRITTENDEN and other good and true Whig orators. The volunteer companies of Nashville, having been pressing invited, attended, and were met and treated with the most unbounded cordiality and hospitality. Our Whig boys, who returned yesterday, tell us they never saw such "oceans of people" but once before, and that was at the great Nashville Convention of 1840. There were nine or ten military companies present, besides the companies from this city, two of them from Robertson and Montgomery counties in this State.—Nashville Whig, July 30.

THE MADISON BARBECUE.—This grand affair far surpassed the highest anticipations of its projectors. It was truly an outpouring of the people, and served to show that our Hoosier neighbors are "wide awake" on political subjects. We should judge there were at least from eight to twelve thousand persons on the ground, all of whom appeared to be exceedingly enthusiastic. As the large procession passed through the streets it was cheered by beautiful ladies and gallant men. Addresses were delivered by several eminent speakers. Every thing passed off well, and the good and hospitable folks of Madison appeared delighted.—Louisville Courier.

The German Whigs of Cincinnati are moving forward vigorously in support of Whig principles. They have been holding meetings, and have gone into a systematic organization. The "Address of the German Whigs of Hamilton county to their Countrymen," is a terse and sound document, setting forth in as few words as possible the reasons that determine their support of Clay and Freminghuysen commencing with the declaration, that—"We believe and are fully convinced, that the principles of the Whigs are identical with those of the Fathers of our Republic."—Ohio State Journal.

ELECTIONS IN THE CHOCTAW NATION.—At the regular election for Chief in the Puck-shu-nub-district, Choctaw Nation, Col. Thomas Ledford was elected over the late incumbent, Col. James Fletcher, by a majority of 300 votes. Nii-uk-a-chee was elected Chief of Push-ma-ta-ha district, in the place of Col. Isaac Fulson, who resigned.—Arkansas Intelligencer.

LOCAL NEWS.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—A large party of ladies and gentlemen participated in the excursion down the Potomac under the direction of this meritorious order, on yesterday evening, in the steamer Columbia. The company enjoyed themselves to their heart's content in dancing, the promenade, and listening to good temperance addresses, to a late hour, when the boat returned to the city. Mr. Hoban, who it was expected was to address the company, was unable to attend. This excursion was very handsomely gotten up, and drew out an extraordinary attendance of those fast friends of the Temperance cause—the ladies. A severe shower of rain came on while down the river—but the gay party regarded it but little—and, when over, again returned to the upper deck, and resumed the merry dance until the boat returned to the city.

YOUNG WHIGS.—The procession of Young Whigs, we are requested to State, will take place on Monday evening next, and will be formed at the Club House.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—The human frame may properly be compared to a musical instrument, possessing peculiar powers, all systematically arranged, and executing various movements of pieces; and life is the music produced by this combination, or the result of such harmonious action. So long as the machine is regularly wound up by a constant supply of proper nutrition, (which is pure blood,) so long will the music continue; but when the source becomes impure, this wonderful instrument will shortly cease its movements, and it is found that life is simply the sum of the functions that resist death. If proper medicine is administered while there is strength left in the constitution, disease may be subdued and the patient restored to perfect health.

Sands's Sarsaparilla, composed entirely of vegetable extracts, has been tried and fully proved, in a wide range of diseases, to be all that is required to dispel disease and re-establish a healthy action.—Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pain in the Bones, Ulcers, Scrofula, destroying the glands, Nervous Affections, Salt Rheum, and other cutaneous diseases arising from an impure and depraved state of the blood, will be safely and effectually cured by its use. Patients, after suffering for years with chronic and constitutional disorders, have speedily regained health by its use, and testified to the same for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5. Agents for Washington city:—ROBERT FARNHAM, Bookseller, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 11th street, and R. S. PATTERSON, Druggist, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 9th street.

RALLY, YOUNG WHIGS OF WASHINGTON AND GEORGETOWN!

There will be a grand rally of the YOUNG WHIGS of Washington and Georgetown on Monday evening, August 12th, in front of the Club House, for the purpose of forming a Torch-light procession. Come, young Whigs, bring with you all the devices you can. Rally, rally, in your strength, and show to the young Loco-focos that you intend to make their "young hickories," tremble and quake. Let your voices go forth for HENRY CLAY and THEO. FRELINGHUYSEN. Come up, young Whigs, to your duty! The procession when formed, headed by their Glee Club, will march to the President's Square for the purpose of receiving the Whig Boys of Georgetown. jy6

A MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the Clay Club will be held at the usual place of meeting on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. The several officers are also requested to attend. aug7

THE BOARD OF HEALTH will meet at their room, City Hall, on Wednesday, August 7th, at 5 o'clock. A full and punctual attendance is particularly requested. jy6

THE FRANKLIN LYCEUM will meet this evening, 7th inst. at 8 o'clock, at their Hall, in the basement of St. Mathews' Church, when an essay will be delivered by a member and the following question discussed, viz: "Which has conferred the most benefits on mankind, the mariner's compass or the art of printing." The public are respectfully invited to attend. THOS. MAGILL, Secretary.

ISLAND HOUSE, JACKSON CITY.

JAS. McGRATH, of the Washington Coffee House has the pleasure to inform his friends and the public generally that he has recently taken and fitted up for their benefit and enjoyment a House at the southern end of the Long Bridge, (Jackson City,) to which he respectfully solicits their attention and patronage.—The adjacent grounds are prettily laid off, directly on the river, with large shady trees and green lawn, continually refreshed with a fine breeze. A beautiful prospect is also afforded of the shores of the Potomac from the heights above Georgetown to a considerable distance below Washington, and of the surrounding hills and country seats.

Gentlemen will find it a pleasant ride or walk in the morning or afternoon, and they can employ themselves in fishing or other amusements—the necessary materials therefor being at their disposal free of expense. The Alexandria stages pass every evening at 7 o'clock, so that a conveyance to Washington can always be had. The bar is well supplied.

A great desire having been expressed for a place of resort from the heat of the city, Mr. McGRATH hopes that in this instance his endeavors to please the taste of the public will not be disappointed. jy12-eod2w

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

WITH NOTICES of other portions of America, by S. G. Goodrich, author of Peter Parley's Tales, for the use of schools. The main purpose of the work is to furnish a full, accurate, and just history of the Western Continent, which may attract and render this subject a common school study throughout the land. While, therefore, it is full, in point of matter, it is so arranged as to be easily mastered by the pupil, and without excessive demands upon the attention of the teacher. It will be remarked that the work is largely illustrated with engravings of scenes and incidents, together with portraits, plans, and maps, designed to convey correct ideas of men and things, and at the same time taking care that the history shall be studied with accurate geographical notions.

Also, THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF FRANCE, upon the same plan, and by the same author.
